Fig. 6A

The diagram shows a dashed rectangular box containing a selection rule. The rule is written in bold, uppercase letters: (VALUE > $100USD AND COUNT > 10) OR VALUE > $200USD. Above the text, there are two labels, each consisting of the number '610' and a curved line pointing down to the text. The first '610' points to the start of the rule, and the second '610' points to the end of the rule.
